

Leadership with the Clore Programme

“ Steve and Adrian of The Collingwood Group have quickly become an invaluable and regular part of our course timetable by proposing, developing and refining tailor made sessions for the very specific needs of the Clore Leadership Short Course Programme. I've been impressed by their readiness to adapt to new situations and capability to read their varied audiences. Their refreshing lack of jargon and open approach promotes real dialogue with participants and creates an atmosphere that is not only fun, but also conducive to effective learning and questioning. They have been a consistent favourite with successive groups of participants and I have no doubt they will play a key role in developing our work in the long term. They are a real pleasure to work with. ”
